CONTRACT - RULES, REGULATIONS, CODE OF CONDUCT

RULES, REGULATIONS, CODE OF CONDUCT

1. I am in good health and am physically able to discharge the professional responsibilities of an America's Super Pageant titleholder.
2. I have not committed and will not commit any act inconsistent with high standards of public morals or any act which will reflect unfavorably on the pageant during my reign.
3. I am of good moral character and will conduct myself in a courteous and professional manner at all times during my reign with the Int'l/America's Super Pageant, and while representing a Super Pageant title or RED's Studio.
4. I will not consume alcoholic beverages, smoke tobacco or be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs (including prescription drugs not prescribed by your physician) while wearing my crown or sash or while representing my title.
5. I will not slander other contestants, judges, sponsors, pageant staff or anyone else involved with or connected to the America's Super Pageant. Defamatory verbal and/or written remarks against America's Super Pageant or its delegates, will result in immediate disqualification and forfeiture of any and all gifts, prizes, and fees paid.
6. Good sportsmanship is expected at all times. Disruptive behavior before, during, or after the pageant may result in disqualification and removal from the premises. If delegate is disqualified, stripped of title, or relinquishes, for any reason, any title, prizes & gifts awarded to her, must be returned in full, or delegate will be charged reasonable replacement costs.
7. If selected as a national/Int'l Super Pageant titleholder, Delegate agrees to arrange and make a minimum of 10 appearances (one per month) throughout Delegate's reign. All appearances must be documented in hard copy form, and submitted to the national office within 30 days of occurrence. Appearances may include but are not limited to parades; radio, internet, television and newspaper interviews; and public appearances at events. If all appearances are made, and documented on time, the pageant will provide lodging (shared with another queen) when returning to crown your successor.
8. America's Super Pageant titleholders agree to provide America's Super Pageant with hard copies of all articles and/or photos pertaining to her reign. National/Int'l titleholders cannot represent, or promote, any other pageant during their reign.
9. By virtue of participation in the America's Super Pageant competition, Delegate agrees to allow America's Super Pageant/RED's Studio the right to use her name, likeness, voice and/or biographical information for purposes of publicity and promotion now and in the future. Delegate agrees to waive any and all compensation for use of her name, likeness, voice, and /or biographical information for purposes of publicity and promotion.
10. Delegate agrees to release America's Super Pageant/RED's Studio from liability for any injury resulting from participation, participation, publicity and promotion.
11. Delegate attests that all information submitted to America's Super Pageant is true and accurate. Falsification of information and failure to comply with the policies of America's Super Pageant may result in immediate disqualification and/or forfeiture of prizes & regalia without benefit of refund in full or in part at the sole discretion of pageant staff.
12. Delegates may not intentionally engage the judges in conversation prior to, or during the competition. Judges may be on site, but private conversations are prohibited.
13. Delegate agrees to supply her own competition & personal wardrobes, travel, lodging and meals.
14. Delegates who are under 18 years of age as of the pageant date must be accompanied by a parent/guardian at all times.
15. Delegates agree that the decisions of the judges, and pageant staff, will be final.
16. Contestant understands that while she may withdraw from the competition at any time, under no circumstances, nor for any reason, will contestant be entitled to a refund. All fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.
17. If any litigation is instituted, the venue of any action must be in the County of Ravalli, State of Montana.
18. I understand that while I am under contract with the America's SUPER Pageant, and for one year after, I am prohibited from starting my own pageant system, directing another system or recruiting for any other pageant system without prior written consent from the America's SUPER Pageant.
19. I understand that I am expected to return to crown my successor, and will receive $100 travel/appearance fee for each contestant I recruit during my reign, if I return to crown my successor.
20. I am qualified to represent my state or region due to residency, property, origin of birth, ownership, employment or military station.
21. I agree to abide by the Rules, Regulations and Code of Conduct of the America's Super Pageant.
22. I understand that failure to honor the platform of Seat Belt Safety is grounds for dismissal from the pageant and removal of my title and relinquishment of all prizes and regalia.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
TITLEHOLDER FOR INTERNATIONAL PAGEANT SELECTED

Delegate Name & Title _____

The pageant finals will be held May 22, 2022 in Hamilton, Montana, USA. Delegates from around the world will compete in Interview, Fun Fashion Attire, Photogenic, Evening Gown and while promoting a Platform. These women are intelligent, ambitious, and personable. They are influential women, with impressive backgrounds, who make a difference in their communities through volunteerism and service. Each delegate has her own unique skills and abilities that make her a powerful candidate for this international title.

There will be 7 national queens, in various age divisions. The overall highest score will be crowned with the Int'l SUPER Ms. title. Winners will receive a beautiful custom designed crown, a unique satin banner which promotes the pageant's platform of Seat Belt Use & Awareness, and a collection of jewelry and gifts fitting a queen. In addition to the competition, delegates will enjoy parties, photo shoots, and an opportunity to tour a historical community set in rugged Bitterroot Valley.

Contestants are currently seeking sponsors to cover expenses in all areas of the pageant (location, lodging, attire, meals, etc.) and would appreciate your support in promoting themselves and their titles. They are eager to help at events and will spend their reign making appearances that include: greeting the public, modeling in fashion shows, presenting awards, drawing door prizes, emceeing events, entertaining, riding in parades, serving as celebrity judges and public speaking. They add interest, color and a positive vibe to any event, and are positive role models for children and adults, who are fascinated to meet a real "princess". There is never a charge for having a titleholder attend your event, but a "tip", gift or small donation to cover her expenses is appreciated. If you would like to book a queen for your upcoming event, you may contact them directly, OR email, call or visit our web site for more details.

Sincerely,

Janet Bierer
